

Health care workers praise court ruling

Updated: Saturday, 24 Oct 2009, 3:24 PM EDT

Published : Saturday, 24 Oct 2009, 3:24 PM EDT

- Judy Moore
- Posted by Kate McGowan

BUFFALO, N.Y. (WIVB) - A federal judge has ruled in favor of thousands of local nurses and health care workers.

The ruling says two class action lawsuits against Kaleida Health and Catholic Health can move forward.

The multi-million dollar suits claim that both medical groups cheated employees out of millions by denying them pay for missed break times.

Copyright WIVB.com

Prior results do not guarantee similar outcomes.*